The Return of the Ancestors Gathering Northern Arizona April 18-28, 2009

The Institute for Cultural Awareness is a 501(c)(3) non-profit corporation based out of Cornville, Arizona which provides a safe and healthy environment for cultural exchange and healing. Whether it is teaching children the importance of respecting their environment, preserving sacred sites, or providing our elders a forum for sharing their wisdom, ICA is a champion of community and cultural diversity. Your support of people helping people and the Earth demonstrates that together, we as a community are making a difference. And what greater message of hope during these changing times can we pass onto our children; the keepers of our future? Thank you again for your willingness to make a difference!

Monetary contributions and donations are tax-exempt under Section 501 (c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. ICA welcomes your contributions for our programs directly at:
